Frequently Asked Questions

1. How can I change my password?

From any page on onlyoneorient.com, click login and within the pop-up window click 'Forgotten your password?'. Please be sure to check your junk folders just in case.

If your password reset does enter your junk folder, be sure to add us to your safe sender list!

2. When I sign into my account, I enter the account of another associated contact rather than my own?

If you experience this situation, this is a result of multiple onlyoneorient account sharing the same email address and is the result of our ticketing system pre-selecting a contact that shares that email.

To change this, please email tickets@leytonorient.net with the below details and we will get this changed for you.

- Full name of both current and preferred contact
- Customer reference of both current and preferred contact
- Email address of the account.

3. I have made an association, but I can't add my beneficiary to the tickets within my basket. Why is this?

Depending on what tickets are on sale, they may only be available to certain fans such as season card holders. If an associated contact does not meet the criteria, then they will not show as an option within the basket.
